24.6 acres of prime agriculture and timber land for sale in Granville County, NC! Whether you are seeking an affordable hunting spot full of wildlife, or a home site on a quiet road with little traffic and plenty of privacy, this offering is for you! This beautiful farm has approximately 430 feet of road frontage located off Herbert Faucette Road in Bullock, North Carolina. There is approximately 6 acres of tillable land on this tract and over 18 acres in timber land. There is plenty of room for tripod stands on the wood lines, field corners for two man ladder stands you and a loved one can enjoy, and hardwoods to hang a bow stand from in that dark wooded area a mature buck travels. There is a secluded field in the center of the property that would be perfect to catch a strutting Tom on the edge of. The creek at the bottom of the property is lined with acorn producing hardwoods and is adjacent to a heavy covered bedding area. This farm would look great with your dream home sitting on it. Electric utilities are already on site! <http://www.granvillecounty.org>

A survey has been performed on the property in the last month and is on hand for viewing.

Access to Kerr Lake and the Roanoke River is less than 10 minutes north of this tract, enhancing an outdoorsman's opportunities. Kerr Lake State Recreation Area is a collective of eight access areas scattered around the shoreline of this 50,000-acre reservoir that reaches into Virginia. Hundreds of campsites among five of the access areas offer a range of outdoor experience from RV hookups to group camps. There are several swim beaches in the recreation area and multiple boating ramps, some offering 24-hour access with a few reserved for campers. Two
